

LEASING YOUR LAND FOR SHALE & SOLAR

[3 Part Webinar Series]

Day 1 - Surface Rights:
Utility-Scale Solar Construction and Leases for Land Use
TUESDAY, JUNE 23rd 2:00-3:30 PM

Join OSU Extension for a discussion of what to expect for construction of utility-scale solar, regulations and questions to consider for leasing land for solar development. Speakers include Eric Romich, OSU Extension Field Specialist for Energy Development, and Peggy Kirk Hall, Associate Professor and Field Specialist, Agricultural & Resource Law. Q&A with the energy experts from OSU and Ohio Farm Bureau will be held at the conclusion of the webinar.

Day 2 - Surface Rights:
Negotiating Leases for Oil & Natural Gas Development
WEDNESDAY, JUNE 24th 2:00-3:30 PM

OSU Extension Educators Cliff Little, Dan Lima, and Erika Lyon will cover considerations for leasing property for oil and natural gas. Topics include understanding leasing agreements, an overview of water rights, and what to know about pipelines, including land use expectations and reseeded right-of-ways. A representative from the Ohio Department of Natural Resources Division of Oil and Gas Resources will also be present to answer questions.

Day 3 - Subsurface Rights:
Mineral Rights and the Dormant Mineral Act
THURSDAY, JUNE 25th 2:00-3:30 PM

Learn about what to know when considering leasing or selling mineral rights for oil & natural gas development from Extension Educator Dan Lima. Peggy Kirk Hall, Associate Professor and Field Specialist, Agricultural & Resource Law will discuss the Dormant Mineral Act and implications for land/mineral owners. A representative from the Ohio Department of Natural Resources Division of Oil and Gas Resources will also be present to answer questions.
