Planning for the Future of Your Farm Workshop

OSU Extension invites farm families to learn how to create a plan to transition their farm's ownership, management, and assets to the next generation. Learn how to have crucial conversations about the future of your farm.

Workshop topics include Developing Legacy Goals, Planning for Management transitions, Planning for the Unexpected, Communication and Conflict Management, Legal Tools and Strategies, Developing Your Team, Getting Your Affairs in Order, and Selecting an Attorney.

The base registration fee of $ 25 includes course materials and refreshments for two persons. Additional family members can attend for $15 per person.

Ohio Corn and Wheat are cosponsoring this workshop.

Maintaining Farm Family Legacy Through Farm Transition and Estate Planning

Our teaching team will help answer the following questions and much more!

- Who should inherit the farm?
- How do we prepare the next generation to manage the farm?
- How can we overcome critical family communication issues?
- How do we value sweat equity?
- What is the difference between a will and trust?
- What steps can I take to protect my farm from estate taxes and nursing home costs?
- What do we need to do to be better prepared to meet with an attorney and other professionals?
- What resources does OSU Extension have to assist us as we develop our plan?

*David Marrison,
OSU Field
Specialist, Farm
Management*

*Robert Moore, Attorney,
Agriculture and Resource
Law Program*
