

OSU Extension offers income tax education designed for tax preparers with some experience preparing and filing federal tax returns for individuals and small businesses. We also provide tax education for farmer and farmland owners.

Instruction focuses on tax law changes and on the problems faced in preparing farm tax returns. Highly qualified instructors will explain and interpret tax regulations and recent changes in tax laws. Most schools and webinars offer continuing education credit for attorneys, CPAs, EAs, CFPs, and other tax return preparers.
